APPLICANT'S STATEMENT AND AUTHORIZATION FOR RELEASE:

I certify the answers given herein are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

This application for employment shall only be considered for the position/opening for which you have applied.

I hereby understand and acknowledge that, unless otherwise defined by applicable law, any employment relationship with Clasen Quality Chocolate is of an "at will" nature, which means that the Employee may resign at any time and the Employer may discharge the Employee at any time with or without cause.

In the event of employment, I understand that false or misleading information given in my application, resume or interview(s) may result in a decision not to hire or discharge. I understand, also, that I am required to abide by all policies and procedures of Clasen Quality Chocolate.

I authorize Clasen Quality Chocolate to conduct investigations and inquiries of my personal, employment, academic, and other related matters as may be necessary for an employment decision. I understand that this investigation will include a reference check with some or all of the employers whom I have identified on the job application, as well as an effort to verify the fact that I have provided complete and accurate information. I hereby authorize all previous employers to disclose the facts of my past employment, titles or positions held, wage and salary history and the reasons for and the circumstances surrounding my separation of employment. In consideration for providing this information, I hereby release, waive and discharge the company, its officers, agents and employees from any and all loss or damage and any claim or damage resulting here from which may arise as a direct or indirect result of the company's statements responding to the reference check.

I have read carefully, understand and agree to the above statements.

Invitation to Self-Identify Under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended.

CQC is a Government subcontractor subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002, 38 U.S.C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government subcontractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; and (4) Armed Forces service medal veterans.

These classifications are defined as follows:

Disabled Veteran:

- a veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; or
- a person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

Recently Separated Veteran: a veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service.

Active Duty Wartime Or Campaign Badge Veteran: a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.

Armed forces service medal veteran: a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.

- Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA--the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS), toll free, at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.

- If you believe you belong to any of the categories of protected veterans listed above, please indicate by checking the appropriate box above. As a Government subcontractor subject to VEVRAA, we request this information in order to measure the effectiveness of the outreach and positive recruitment efforts we undertake pursuant to VEVRAA.

- Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information provided will be used only in ways that are not inconsistent with the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended.

- The information you submit will be kept confidential, except that (i) supervisors and managers may be informed regarding restrictions on the work or duties of disabled veterans, and regarding necessary accommodations; (ii) first aid and safety personnel may be informed, when and to the extent appropriate, if you have a condition that might require emergency treatment; and (iii) Government officials engaged in enforcing laws administered by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, or enforcing the Americans with Disabilities Act, may be informed.

Voluntary Self-Identification of Disability Form CC-305 OMB Control Number 1250-0005 Expires 1/31/2020

Why are you being asked to complete this form?

- Because we do business with the government, we must reach out to, hire, and provide equal opportunity to qualified people with disabilities*. To help us measure how well we are doing, we are asking you to tell us if you have a disability or if you ever had a disability. Completing this form is voluntary, but we hope that you will choose to fill it out. If you are applying for a job, any answer you give will be kept private and will not be used against you in any way.

- If you already work for us, your answer will not be used against you in any way. Because a person may become disabled at any time, we are required to ask all of our employees to update their information every five years. You may voluntarily self-identify as having a disability on this form without fear of any punishment because you did not identify as having a disability earlier.

How do I know if I have a disability?

You are considered to have a disability if you have a physical or mental impairment or medical condition that substantially limits a major life activity, or if you have a history or record of such an impairment or medical condition. Disabilities include, but are not limited to: • Blindness • Deafness • Cancer • Diabetes • Epilepsy • Autism • Cerebral palsy • HIV/AIDS • Schizophrenia • Muscular dystrophy • Bipolar disorder • Major depression • Multiple sclerosis (MS) • Missing limbs or partially missing limbs • Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) • Obsessive compulsive disorder • Impairments requiring the use of a wheelchair • Intellectual disability (previously called mental retardation)

Reasonable Accommodation Notice

Federal law requires employers to provide reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with disabilities. Please tell us if you require a reasonable accommodation to apply for a job or to perform your job. Examples of reasonable accommodation include making a change to the application process or work procedures, providing documents in an alternate format, using a sign language interpreter, or using specialized equipment.

Reasonable accommodation requests should be directed to hr@cqc.com or 608-467-1130, option 7.

*Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended. For more information about this form or the equal employment obligations of Federal contractors, visit the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) website www.dol.gov/ofccp.

PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENT: According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. This survey should take about 5 minutes to complete.
